Cabinet – 4 June 2018

Compliance with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR)

Report of the Executive Director

Recommendation

- 1. The CCTV policy, as detailed in Appendix 1 of the report, be approved;
- 2. the twelve principles of cctv code of practice, issued by the surveillance camera commissioner, be adopted;
- 3. the code of practice on CCTV, issued by the Information Commissioner's Office, be adopted; and
- 4. progress on compliance with the data protection legislation be noted.

1. Introduction

1.1 The General Data Protection Regulation is the new data protection framework for the EU and applied in the UK from 25 May 2018.

1.2 The Data Protection Act 2018, due to receive Royal Assent, translates the provisions of the GDPR into UK law. Section three of the Act also legislates for the EU Law Enforcement Directive, which covers protections on personal data processed in relation to preventing, detecting, investigating and prosecuting criminal activity.

1.3 A report to cabinet on 4 December 2017 introduced a new data protection policy, and sought approval for the statutory appointment to the Data Protection Officer role. It also described some of the steps needed in order to achieve substantial compliance with the new data protection laws.

1.4 Substantial progress has been made and, with the changes recommended within this report, the risk of non-compliance is reduced.

2.0 Information audit

2.1 Information asset owners, who are mostly managers and team leaders, have completed personal data audits covering their areas of responsibility. Together, these comprise the council's register of processing activity (ROPA). The ROPA must be made available to the Information Commissioner on request.

2.2 Each processing activity identified within the information audit has been assigned one of the six lawful bases of processing identified in the GDPR. The lawful basis that the council is relying on to process the personal information determines the rights that are available to individuals.

2.3 The processing activity and associated rights are described in privacy notices that relate to the information being processed. The privacy notices are made available to data subjects on request and are being published on the appropriate service or council website.

3.0 Disclosure

3.1 Personal data may be disclosed as part of a processing activity as identified in the information audit or may be disclosed via subject access requests.

3.2 In most circumstances individuals have a right to access the information that the council holds about them. These access requests are coordinated centrally by the communications, consultation and information team. A response must be provided within one calendar month, starting on the day after the request is received.

3.2 In some circumstances, for example in the case of children or adults who have a power of attorney, individuals may request information about someone else. The council will respond to these requests when the requestor is able to demonstrate that disclosure would be lawful.

3.3 Third party subject access requests are typically received from the police or social services. These access requests are also coordinated centrally by the communications, consultation and information team. Before disclosing personal information the council must be satisfied that the request is legitimate, that it has a lawful basis, and that disclosure would both be lawful and would meet the stated purpose of the request.

3.4 Internal departments that can demonstrate a need to access personal information held by another department are given the information if they can meet the requirements set out in 3.3, above.

3.5 Any disclosure that is not in accordance with the register of processing activity or as a result of a subject access request is an unlawful disclosure and is treated as a breach.

3.6 Personal data breaches and near misses are reported to the communications, consultation and information team for triage, and are then referred to a panel that includes the senior information risk officer (SIRO), the data protection officer (DPO), the audit manager and the IT manager. This panel decide on what further action to take, which may include making a statutory report to the Information Commissioner.

4.0 CCTV policy and practice

4.1 The information audit identified a number of CCTV systems that the council owns and operates. These systems do not include the Rugby town centre CCTV system, which is operated by Rugby First.

4.2 The audit found that the customs and practices around the operation of the council's CCTV systems are mostly in accordance with good practice guidelines. However, the GDPR and Law Enforcement Directive require data controllers to be able to demonstrate compliance and the lack of documented evidence relating to the CCTV systems means that these systems do not comply.

4.3 External advice and assistance has been sought via the council's regular audit programme. This has led to an action plan that will bring the council's CCTV operations in line with relevant guidance while also complying with the new data protection laws.

4.4 The attached CCTV policy describes how the council will operate its CCTV systems. It requires information asset owners to adopt a code of practice in relation to their systems, and to have the code of practice approved by the council's SIRO and DPO. It also requires that a privacy impact assessment is carried out and the purpose, placement and operation of every camera or category of camera within a system.

4.5 The policy also proposes that the council adopts the twelve principles identified in the Surveillance Camera Commissioner's Code of Practice, and the Code of Practice issued by the Information Commissioner's Office. Information asset owners must take account of these in the design, commissioning and operation of their CCTV systems.

5.0 Resources and training

5.1 The Data Protection Officer has been appointed to the Data Protection Officer role at Nuneaton and Bedworth Borough Council and is providing a shared information management service.

5.2 Both councils have benefited from the shared service arrangement, as the councils have a number of common services and systems. This has reduced duplication and resulted in shared good practice.

5.3 In addition to the statutory Data Protection Officer role, there is a new requirement under the data protection laws to demonstrate that the council is taking organisational measures to protect personal data.

5.4 All council officers and members are required to undertake mandatory data protection training appropriate to their roles and responsibilities. This will help to reduce the likelihood of a data breach while also helping the council to demonstrate that it has appropriate organisational measures in place.

6.0 Next steps

6.1 At the time of preparing this report the Data Protection Act 2018 was awaiting Royal Assent and expected guidance from the Information Commissioner has still not been published. There is still some uncertainty relating to the interpretation of some of the provisions within the Act and how they may apply to the council.

6.2 The council will continue to monitor the Act and updated guidance and will update the ROPA, privacy notices, policies or procedures in light of any changes.

DRAFT CCTV POLICY

1. Introduction

Closed circuit television (CCTV) and body worn video (BWV) are both used by Rugby Borough Council. They are valuable tools to assist with public safety and security and to protect property.

The CCTV installations and body worn video are owned and maintained by Rugby Borough Council (the council) and are operated to the requirements of the Data Protection Act, the General Data Protection Regulation and Law Enforcement Directive and good practice guidelines, such as those issued by the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) and the Surveillance Camera Commissioner (SCC), that ensure the need for public protection is balanced with respect for the privacy of individuals.

The cameras capture personal information that could identify individuals. The council's data protection policy gives more detail on how the council processes and looks after personal data.

2. Scope

This policy applies to all overt (open) CCTV installations controlled by the council, including internal and external cameras, vehicle mounted cameras and body worn video systems used by enforcement officers and employees with similar, relevant, roles. This policy also covers the use of the following types of equipment should the council decide, at any point, to utilise this technology:

- automatic number plate recognition (ANPR);
- unmanned aerial systems or drones.

This policy does not apply to the covert (secret) use of CCTV, which is covered by the Regulation of Investigatory Powers Act 2000 (RIPA).

Appendix 1 lists the cctv and body worn video systems that are currently used by Rugby Borough Council.

3. Policy statement

The purpose of this policy aims to:

- ensure compliance with relevant legislation, as listed in the below section;
- ensure adherence to the ICO CCTV Code of Practice and the SCC CCTV Code of Practice.

4. Relevant legislation

The council must comply with all the relevant statutory legislation, in particular the following, with regards to the installation and operation of CCTV and BWV systems:

- Data Protection Act;
- the General Data Protection Regulation and Law Enforcement Directive, as enacted;
- Human Rights Act 1998;
- Freedom of Information Act 2000;
- Protection of Freedoms Act 2012;
- Regulation of Investigatory Powers Act 2000.

5. Duties and responsibilities

Rugby Borough Council is registered with the Information Commissioner as a data controller and has responsibility for the fair and lawful processing of personal information and special categories of personal information.

This policy is relevant to staff whose role at Rugby Borough Council includes CCTV or BWV either as a direct responsibility or peripheral to their normal tasks. The following measures must be in place for all CCTV and BWV systems:

- compliance with the Data Protection Act and the council's data protection policy;
- a code of practice, prepared by the information asset owner and approved by the senior information risk officer (SIRO) and data protection officer (DPO), in place for each system describing its scope, purpose, methods of transfer and disclosure where appropriate, and the staff or categories of staff authorised to use the system;
- a privacy impact assessment (PIA) on the purpose, placement and operation of each camera or category of camera;
- appropriate operational knowledge and training in place for all CCTV and BWV operators;
- corporate and departmental policies, procedures and codes of practice on the operation of CCTV and BWV systems are implemented and followed;
- appropriate physical security that assures the integrity of the CCTV and BWV Systems and their recordings;
- retention periods documented and adhered to;
- access to footage strictly controlled to relevant and authorised personnel only.

6. Purpose of the CCTV systems

The Council's CCTV and BWV systems are used for the following key objectives that will be subject to an annual assessment:

- to detect, prevent or reduce the incidence of crime;
- to maintain security of access to systems or premises;
- to prevent and respond effectively to all forms of possible harassment and disorder;
- to reduce the fear of crime;
- to create a safer environment;
- to provide assistance to emergency services;
- to assist with health and safety and other serious occurrences, including employment issues.

7. Surveillance Camera Commissioner (SCC)

The Secretary of State has issued a Surveillance Camera Code of Practice under Section 30 of the Protection of Freedoms Act 2012, which provides guidance on the use of CCTV and BWV cameras. It explains how the government is supportive of the use of overt CCTV and BWV provided that certain conditions are met and to ensure these are met has put together the following twelve guiding principles.

There are more details for each of the 12 principles in the Code of Practice, which must be read in conjunction with this policy. The 12 principles are;

1. Use of a surveillance camera system must always be for a specified purpose which is in pursuit of a legitimate aim and necessary to meet an identified pressing need.

2. The use of a surveillance camera system must take into account its effect on individuals and their privacy, with regular reviews to ensure its use remains justified.

3. There must be as much transparency in the use of a surveillance camera system as possible, including a published contact point for access to information and complaints.

4. There must be clear responsibility and accountability for all surveillance camera system activities including images and information collected, held and used.

5. Clear rules, policies and procedures must be in place before a surveillance camera system is used, and these must be communicated to all who need to comply with them.

6. No more images and information should be stored than that which is strictly required for the stated purpose of a surveillance camera system, and such images and information should be securely deleted once their purposes have been discharged.

7. Access to retained images and information should be restricted and there must be clearly defined rules on who can gain access and for what purpose such access is granted; the disclosure of images and information should only take place when it is necessary for such a purpose or for law enforcement purposes.

8. Surveillance camera system operators should consider any approved operational, technical and competency standards relevant to a system and its purpose and work to meet and maintain those standards.

9. Surveillance camera system images and information should be subject to appropriate security measures to safeguard against unauthorised access and use.

10. There should be effective review and audit mechanisms to ensure legal requirements, policies and standards are complied with in practice, and regular reports should be published.

11. When the use of a surveillance camera system is in pursuit of a legitimate aim, and there is a pressing need for its use, it should then be used in the most effective way to support public safety and law enforcement with the aim of processing images and information of evidential value.

12. Any information used to support a surveillance camera system which compares against a reference database for matching purposes should be accurate and kept up to date.

The SCC is a statutory appointment by the Home Secretary to promote compliance with the Surveillance Camera Code of Practice and to provide advice on compliance. A SCC Guide has also been created by the Secretary of State to assist organisations with compliance.

8. Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) CCTV Code of Practice

The ICO has produced a data protection code of practice for CCTV and BWV to assist organisations who use CCTV and BWV to comply with the Data Protection Act.

The code gives guidance in areas such as deciding when CCTV and BWV should be used, governance of the personal data that the CCTV and BWV systems collect, how to use the equipment, and organisational responsibilities.

As with the SCC Code of Practice, the ICO Code has also been adopted, in full, by the Council.

9. How images and information are stored.

Images and information will be stored in line with industry standards, relevant to the type of CCTV or BWV system installed.

Recorded images and CCTV and BWV information will only be used for the purposes defined in this policy and in individual camera system codes of practice. Ownership of the recorded material is with the council as the Data Controller. Recording equipment will be checked to a regular schedule, as defined in each code of practice.

CCTV and BWV images will only be viewed when there is a legitimate business reason to do so and the showing of recorded material to other internal or external individuals will only be allowed in accordance with the law.

Recorded images will be stored securely in digital format. Where there is a business reason to keep an image longer than the usual set retention period the image will be copied and stored securely, again in digital format, with new, relevant set retentions documented. Where relevant other council policies may also govern how certain aspects of the council's CCTV and BWV systems are used, like the Information Security and Acceptable Use Policy.

10. Requests for footage

CCTV and BWV footage can be requested through various routes, predominantly via data subject access requests or via the Freedom of Information Act 2000. Inappropriate access, use or disclosure of CCTV and BWV footage may put members of the public, employees or CCTV and BWV operators at risk of serious harm, damage or distress, the Council at risk of reputational damage and/or be a breach of the law.

Data Protection Act

Individuals who are captured on CCTV or BWV footage are entitled to request a copy of that footage via a subject access request. In addition, in certain circumstances individuals or organisations may request information relating to somebody else. These requests are known as third party subject access requests, and may be made on somebody's behalf where they have the legal right to do so, or may be made by an organisation such as the police or social services.

Anyone making a third party subject access request must provide evidence of their legal authority to request the information and include details of the purpose and legal basis that they are relying on.

Subject access requests and third party subject access requests will be coordinated centrally by the communications, consultation and information team.

Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FoIA)

CCTV and BWV images can be requested under the Freedom of Information Act 2000. FoIA deals with information the council holds, but personal information is usually exempt from disclosure. However there may be instances where footage does not contain personal information and as such will need to be considered for release. Requests made under FoIA for CCTV and BWV images will be coordinated centrally by the communications, consultation and information team.

Internal requests for information

Sometimes internal departments may need to request access to CCTV and BWV images in connection with internal investigations. Any requests of this type will be treated as third party subject access requests. The internal department making the request must identify their purpose and legal basis for making the request.

11. Regulation of Investigatory Powers (RIPA)

Targeted covert (secret) surveillance of individuals will only be undertaken for good reason, and in line with the procedures set out in the Regulation of Investigatory Powers Act (RIPA) Policy. Local authorities can only authorise use of directed surveillance under RIPA to prevent or detect criminal offences that are punishable, whether on summary conviction or indictment, by a maximum term of at least 6 months' imprisonment.

The viewing of everyday CCTV footage is not covert and is covered by this policy and outside of the RIPA process. This is due to the camera being in plain sight for individuals to see and with appropriate signage as per the Codes of Practice from the ICO and SCC. This means that use of CCTV or BWV systems to monitor a particular employee or member of the public, which is targeted surveillance, is not permitted unless the use has been approved under RIPA (Regulation of Investigatory Powers Act 2000).

Moving or zooming CCTV or BWV systems towards individuals and their activities is not permitted unless the use has been approved under RIPA. Moving or zooming CCTV or BWV systems towards individuals and their activities is permitted if suspected criminal activity or public safety issues are already taking place, and cameras are moved or zoomed in response to this.

12. Policy review

A review of this policy will take place every two years or as required to take account of any new or changed legislation or regulations of business practices.

13. Breaches of this policy

Failure to adhere to this policy will place the Council at significant risk and may also result in a breach of legislation.

All breaches and suspected breaches of this policy must be reported using the data breach reporting methods available at the time of the breach, or direct to the Data Protection Officer.

Actions or neglect leading to a breach of this policy, or failure to report a breach will also be investigated.

CCTV AND BWV SYSTEM CODES OF PRACTICE

Codes of practice should include information on and comply with the following;

1. Management of the schemes

- 2. A risk assessment must be carried out to assess the need and requirements of CCTV systems within individual service locations. The cameras must therefore be sited to capture images which are relevant to the purposes for which the schemes have been established.
- 3. This risk assessment must be reviewed on an annual basis by the information asset owner.
- 4. Details of the cameras that have been sited to capture images which are relevant to the purpose for which the scheme has been established.
- 5. Details of how the scheme will be operated fairly, within the applicable law and only for the purposes for which it is established or which are subsequently agreed in accordance with the Code of Practice.
- 6. The owners, users and any visitors to the control, monitoring and recording facilities will be required to sign a formal confidentiality declaration that they will treat any viewed and/or written material as being strictly confidential and that they undertake not to divulge it to any other person.
- 7. Those who have authorised access are aware of the purpose(s) for which the scheme has been established and that the CCTV equipment is only used to achieve the identified purposes.

8. Scheme and signage

- 9. The CCTV scheme aims to provide surveillance of the public areas within the specified location, in order to fulfil the purposes of the scheme. The area protected by CCTV will be indicated by the presence of signs. The signs will be placed so that the public are aware before they enter a zone which is covered by surveillance equipment. The signs will state the organisation responsible for the scheme, the purposes of the scheme and a contact telephone number.
- 10. Data will not be held for longer than necessary and disposal of information will in accordance with retention schedules and disposal policies. It is important that disposal of records happens as part of a managed process and is adequately documented within the service document retention schedule or register or processing activity.

11. Point of contact

12. Any scheme Code of Practice should inform the public on how to make contact with the owners of the scheme it should specify the location of the equipment and who to contact for additional information.

13. Release of information to the public

- 14. Information can be released to justifiable third parties who can show legitimate reasons for access. They will be required to request any information with reasons in writing and identify themselves. Requests for footage should be submitted via the council's subject access procedures.
- 15. Individuals may request in writing to view information concerning them held on record in accordance with data protection law. System managers will need to consider if there are any other third parties within the images being requested and consider redacting any third party data.

16. Release of information to statutory prosecuting bodies

- 17. The policy is to assist statutory prosecuting bodies such as the Police, and statutory authorities with powers to prosecute and facilitate the legitimate use of information derived from the scheme. Information asset owners need to ensure that any system will meet the requirements of any prosecuting body i.e. HD quality cameras.
- 18. Statutory bodies may have access to information permitted for disclosure on application to the council via the council's subject access procedures. These applications must provide the reasons, statement of purpose and meet the requirements of data protection law.

19. System registration

20. The Council must be registered with the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) to process personal data, and it is the responsibility of service managers to ensure that their use of CCTV and BWV systems are within the scope of the council's registration.

21. Accountability

- 22. A member of the public wishing to make a complaint about the system may do so through the Rugby Borough Council complaints procedure.
- 23. A copy of the Code of Practice for each system will be published on the service our council website.
- 24. CCTV control management and operation
- 25. Access to the monitoring and recording areas will be strictly controlled.
- 26. The System Manager or in his/her absence the Deputy, is authorised to determine who has access to the monitoring area. This will normally be:
  - a. authorised personnel
  - b. police officers requiring to view a particular incident, or intelligence or evidential purposes. These visits will take place by prior appointment and after a subject access request has been approved.
  - c. technicians and cleaning staff (These people will receive supervision throughout their visit)
- 27. Inspectors/Auditors/SIRO/DPO may visit the monitoring and recording facility without prior appointment.
- 28. All visitors to the monitoring and recording area, including Police Officers, will be required to sign a visitors log and a declaration of confidentiality.
- 29. Observation and recording of incidents
- 30. Recording will be throughout the 24 hour period. The system will be monitored on the basis of operational necessity.

31. Access to recorded images

32. Access to recorded images will be restricted to the manager or designated member of staff who will disclose images only in line with the subject access procedures.

33. Privacy and disclosure

- 34. The following principles must be adhered to:
  - a. All employees will be aware of the restrictions set out in this Code of Practice in relation to access to, and disclosure of, recorded images;
  - b. Images not required for the purposes of the scheme will not be retained longer than necessary;
  - c. Monitors displaying images from areas in which individuals would have an expectation of privacy will not be viewed by anyone other than authorised persons;
  - d. Recorded material will only be used for the purposes defined in the objectives and policy;
  - e. Access to recorded material will be in accordance with policy and procedures;

- f. Information will not be disclosed for commercial purposes and entertainment purposes;
- g. All access to the medium on which the images are recorded will be documented;

Cabinet (20th October 2014) has agreed a further contribution of £246,545 to the next phase of this project from 2015/16 onwards to be met from the reallocation of Capital Partnership Fund and Parish Capital spending Fund as was the case in Phase 1.

2.0 PUBLIC HEALTH GRANTS

In addition to the Council's own grants, the Communities and Projects Team administers a Rugby specific public health grant on behalf of Warwickshire County Council. The grant totals £20,000 and is allocated according to the requirements of public health. These applications are also assessed by the Grants Working Party to make recommendations for the consideration of Cabinet.

Any underspend to the allocation can be used for project delivery, in keeping with the objectives of public health, and with their approval.

3.0 APPLICATION PROCESS

The application process for the grants opened just after budget setting in February 2018, with applications invited via:

- a notice in the local press
- promotion on the council's website
- WCAVA's e-newsletter

There were 2 training sessions for community organisations, facilitated by WCAVA, which focused on how to complete applications for grants and increase the likelihood of success
